New Brunswick Arts Board | Conseil des arts du Nouveau-Brunswick

Press Release

Artists and arts organizations receive $ 173,740 in arts grants from the New Brunswick Arts Board

(Fredericton – July 21, 2003) - The New Brunswick Arts Board announced today the grant recipients from the spring competitions of the Emerging Artists/Creation/Documentation program, and the recipients of the latest competition for Arts-by-Invitation Grants. Multidisciplinary juries composed of New Brunswick professional artists from all disciplines reviewed the applications. A total of $173,740 from the New Brunswick Arts Board's various programs was awarded to professional artists and professional arts organizations from around the province.

Emerging Artist

Christie, Hunter, Fredericton, $3,500
For a body of new work called "Knot Works"

Camilien Roy, Tetagouche Falls , $3,500
To work on novel entitled "La filled du photographe"

Matt Robinson, Fredericton, $3,500
For a new collection of poems called "Hypsography"

Angèle Cormier, Moncton, $3,500
To create a series of new paintings

Maja Padrov, Gagetown, $3,500
For a pottery project called "Large Architectural Vessels"

Tanya Canam, Fredericton, $3,500
For a photography project entitled "Guatemala"

Valery Robichaud. Moncton, $3,500
To write a new collection of poetry

Tanya Swinimar, Fredericton, $3,500
To make a short film called "Pen Pals"

Mary Hutchman, Fredericton, $3,500
For a new collection of poems entitled "Bittersweet"

Madison Shadwell, Fredericton, $3,500
For a collection of poetry called "Diary of a TSR"

Creation
Moncton Sable, Moncton, $7,000
For a thetre project called "Sans jamais parler du vent"

Atlantic Ballet, Moncton, $7,000
To commission Moncton artist Yvon Gallant to paint sets for a dance production

Rose Després, Moncton, $7,000
For a writing project called " Élia des rêves"

Kora Woolsey, Fredericton, $7,000
For an album of new material.

Andrew Miller, Fredericton, $7,000
For a musical composition called " Abject Beauty; A 21st Century Opera"

Colleen Wagner, Gagetown, $7,000
For a film project called "Remembrance Day"

Heather Browne-Prince, Sussex, $7,000
For a writing project entitled « Bridgework »

Mathieu Léger, Moncton, $7,000
To create new works in visual art called « Variations in Red »

James Wilson, Hampton, $6,415
For a photographic portraiture project entitled "Social Studies"

Jennifer Bélanger, Moncton, $7,000
For a visual arts project called « Oxford »

Linda Rae Dornan, Sackville, $5, 800
For a visual arts project called « One Voice »

Carol Collicutt, Fredericton, $7,000
For a visual art project called "Mixed Media Exploration"

Ross Leckie, Fredericton, $7,000
For a collection of new poetry called "The Rain's Superfluity"

Debbie Adshade, Saint John, $7,000
For new musical compositions under the title "Ordinary Magic"

Jeffrey Burns, Sackville, $7,000
For a series of new works called "Antenna Paintings"

Judy Kamminga, Saint John, $7,000
For ne musical works entitled « Archipelego »

Gisèle Léger-Drapeau, Bouctouche, $7,000
To paint a series of portraits called "Innovations dans l'art du portrait"

Gerry Vanwart, Fredericton, $7,000
For a recording of classical guitar pieces under the title"Resonant Afterimage"

Documentation
Georgia Rondos, Saint John, $6,715
For a video documentation of Ms. Rondos' choreography

New Brunswick Arts-by-Invitation
Claude LeBouthillier, Caraquet, $1,410
To attend a conference on French literature in New Orleans

Ludmila Knezkova-Hussey, Bathurst, $1, 400
To give a performance in Albania

Danny Boudreau, Beresford, $1,500
To perform at a songwriter's festival in Lausanne, Switzerland

Mario Leblanc, Moncton, $1,500
To perform at a songwriter's festival in Belgium

Les Muses, Moncton, $2,000
To perform in Lyon, France

Arts Builder
Atlantic Ballet Theatre of Canada, Moncton, $15,200
To develop marketing tools for the dance company

Claude LeBouthillier, Caraquet, $12,800
To complete a trilogy of historical novels

Coopérative de Cinéma&Vidéo, Moncton, $25,000
To establish a film&video cooperative in the Moncton area

Saint John Theatre Co., Saint John, $20,000
To create a permanent location for the Saint John theatre company

Théâtre populaire d'Acadie, Caraquet, $ 23,000

For technical equipment at the company's new location

Festival de musique baroque, Lamèque, $20,000
For new programming for the Festival in Lamèque

AAAPNB Symposium d'art nature, Moncton, $15,000
For marketing tools to promote the visual arts event in the fall of 2003